I wish to express my sincere congratulations on receiving the Presidential E-Award. This prestigious recognition is a reflection of your outstanding accomplishments. Through exceptional management, careful business strategies, and dedication to a well made product, Cyanotech Corporation has become a world leader in microalgae technology, providing natural and functional nutrients.

The growth of Cyanotech Corporation exemplifies the qualities of which the E-Award was first created. You and your colleagues have endeavored tirelessly, and as a result, this establishment has seen a continual and successful growth in exports. Innovation and an unmistakable commitment to your work have certainly deemed you worthy of such acknowledgment.

Once again, please accept my congratulations and best wishes.
